EDUCATION – THE SEMINAR SESSIONS

Supervised Pastoral Education is a rigorous action/reflection model of learning – the emphasis is on learning directly from participation in a variety of experiences. The Monday seminar sessions will be comprised of up to six students and two supervisors. The sessions provide a supervised, self-directed learning experience. Whilst participants set their own goals, the following are the overall objectives of the seminars:

- to help integrate spirituality/theology, practice and personal identity in both individual and societal contexts.
- to identify and further develop pastoral care gifts and skills
- to acquaint participants with the use of peer group supervision as a way of enhancing practice and pastoral care
- to develop the capacity for self-supervision
- to provide an opportunity to identify and work with one's own faith heritage and development
- to offer an inter-disciplinary setting for learning

PASTORAL CARE FORMATION

Supervised/Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is a programme of education and formation for pastoral care. The programme's methodology utilises the action-reflection model of learning. The action component entails the actual provision of pastoral care within a learning ministry setting. The reflection component entails the exploration of the pastoral/spiritual experience, the dynamics present, and the theological and spiritual dimensions. This action-reflection process is integral to the participants' understanding and the formation of their pastoral process identity and competence. CPE is influenced by "theology from the living human document" (Anton Boisen).

PLACEMENT

The pastoral care placement for this program could be at any one of a number of community settings. Applicants already in a pastoral care setting may initially negotiate with the Centre Director and their employer to use this setting as a placement, or applicants that seek to negotiate another placement of their choosing. The ASACPEV Inc. Standards require a minimum of 100 hours of actual 'hands-on' pastoral care to be provided in the placement.

Under the auspices of the Uniting Church Synod of Victoria and Tasmania, and in collaboration with the Centre for Theology and Ministry.
